

LITERATURE LIVE!

Connecting Authors and Illustrators to Classrooms

☀ Literature Live! launch 21-22 Feb

Literature Live! is a new and innovative concept presenting dynamic, creative writing and illustration workshops to schools across Australia through video-conferencing and interactive whiteboards.

Literature Live! will be launched by Connections in support of the Interactive Classrooms Project of the NSW Department of Education with:

- six TV shows screening to over 120 schools.
- author talks, workshops, reviews and book trailers.

☀ Meet the Literature Live! team

Illustrator Nina Rycroft and authors Laurine Croasdale, Susanne Gervay, Aleesah Darlison and Jeni Mawter.

These industry experts connect with classrooms to respond to questions and ideas with a personalised, collaborative approach. Between them they have published over 65 books.

'My students did 2 video conferences with you. As well as enjoying them, they learnt a lot...'
Dalgety PS

'Your Puggle's Problem VC was the best of many I've viewed. Our Year 1 classes loved it...'
Chittaway Bay PS

Above: Author Jeni Mawter
Below: Author Aleesah Darlison

☀ Visit www.literaturelive.net for more information or contact Jeni Mawter at jeni@jenimawter.com

☀ Book Literature Live! at dartconnections.org.au

Literature Live! is supported by Polycorn and the cultural fund of CAL