

On the air

A storyboard is a series of drawings, similar to a cartoon, showing the action to take place in each frame. Dialogue can be written underneath each frame.

In the frames below, create a storyboard for a 'Quit Smoking' television advertisement.

Television uses powerful visual images so consider how you can include close-ups and long shots. Write these shooting instructions under each frame.
